THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: Ezekiel introduces the metaphor of a shepherd tending a flock of sheep to describe God’s care for us. At the end God judges between sheep and goats, just as in the Gospel the Son of Man separates the sheep from the goats. However, another parallel in the two readings is marked by a crucial difference. In Ezekiel, the Lord God personally looks after and cares for the sheep. But in the Gospel, we sheep are called to care for those in need. In one sense, this adds a layer to the metaphor. But in another sense, the action is flipped. Instead of God caring for us, we are told that when we tend to others, we are actually caring for the Lord. “I was hungry and you gave me drink...”(Matthew 25:35). May we follow the model of the righteous so that even the least among us may be cared for, so that we may spend eternal life with him who is King of the Universe, and “so that God may be all in all” (1 Corinthians 15:28).

How can you make the effort to see the Lord in the faces of all those in need?

RCIA

We call him Redeemer. . .Healer. . .Savior. . .Teacher. . .Consoler. . .Messiah. . .Lord of Lords. Today we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. It is the last Sunday in Cycle A of the Church's liturgical Cycle. We've focused on the Gospel of Matthew throughout Cycle A.

In today's last Gospel from Matthew, we come to understand what Catholic Christians must do to gain an everlasting place in heaven at the end of our earthly journey. We're called to alleviate pain and suffering and injustice in the world. Our gifts of giving and serving show us how we are always using the knowledge we gain from Jesus and the Church and his Word in Scripture to understand the life of Jesus in us through the Holy Spirit.

Every choice we make of life over death helps us to grow in understanding of the kingdom of God. We begin to depend more on God as we realize that we are the hungry and the thirsty who, although we have so many material blessings, we long for more of the spiritual life which Jesus offers. St. Augustine captured this truth in his autobiography, The Confessions of St. Augustine, where he wrote: "Lord, I am restless until I rest in you."

Today, the idea of kingship is hard to relate to. Jesus doesn't fit the stereotype of those who do holy royal titles in England, Spain and other countries of the world. Jesus. . .

- wore no crown or royal vestments
- didn't rise to power like most kings
- didn't have an army or servants or a palace
- his followers were not the powerful or the rich or those with influence
- he didn't have a country which "belonged" to him nor even a kingdom.

Jesus, our King, and King David, had much in common. Both were anointed to become kings and were guided by the power of the Spirit. Both were associated with shepherding. David became king by the consent of those he ruled. Jesus rules over those who invite him into their hearts! He never forces himself on us. . .he waits for us to ask him in and to commit our lives to him. In Revelation 3:20, Jesus says: "Here I stand knocking at the door. If anyone hears my voice and invites me in, I will enter and have supper with him."

Jesus was a servant king and he calls us his followers instead of his slaves or his subjects. He shows us the way to be his followers through a life of love and service to others. He shows us what we must do to be his followers when he teaches about judgment. . .the only time in Scripture where he speaks of judgment: . . . "for I was hungry and you gave me to eat; I was thirsty and you gave me to drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me; sick, and you visited me; in prison and you came to see me. . ." The servant way of life is the kind of servant Jesus wants us to be.

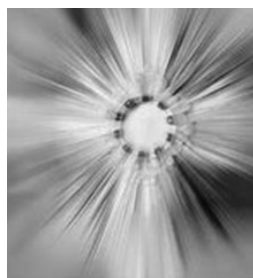

Because of the Covid pandemic we are in, we have continued to teach our RCIA journeyers through lessons mailed to each one every week. They are responsible for assignments mailed back. If you are wanting to "go on a journey of faith through RCIA" please call Janet Ortiz at 505-455-7520.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Comunión Espiritual

Creo Señor que estás presente en el santísimo sacramento del altar. Te adoro y te amo con todo mi corazón. Te pido humildemente perdón de mis pecados. Deseo recibirte en mi interior, mas no pudiendo, ahora, sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón, y, como si ya hubieses venido, te adoro, te abrazo y me uno íntimamente a ti. No permitas que jamás me separe de ti. Amén

"for I was hungry and you gave me to eat; I was thirsty and you gave me to drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me; sick, and you visited me; in prison and you came to see me. . ." The servant way of life is the kind of servant Jesus wants us to be.

Because of the Covid pandemic we are in, we have continued to teach our RCIA journeyers through lessons mailed to each one every week. They are responsible for assignments mailed back. If you are wanting to "go on a journey of faith through RCIA" please call Janet Ortiz at 505-455-7520.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Comunión Espiritual

Creo Señor que estás presente en el santísimo sacramento del altar. Te adoro y te amo con todo mi corazón. Te pido humildemente perdón de mis pecados. Deseo recibirte en mi interior, mas no pudiendo, ahora, sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón, y, como si ya hubieses venido, te adoro, te abrazo y me uno íntimamente a ti. No permitas que jamás me separe de ti. Amén
