SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY: Today’s readings are especially short, but it’s hard to imagine a trio of scriptural passages that better emphasize the generosity of God. In the first reading, God reveals the divine name, Lord, along with the meaning of that name to Moses on Mount Sinai. Every component of the description of the word “Lord” reveals God’s generosity. God is generous with mercy, graciousness, patience (“slow to anger”), kindness and fidelity (Exodus 34:6). This is who God is. Paul concludes his second letter to the Corinthians by describing God as “the God of love and peace,” to gifts that God freely offers to all humankind (2 Corinthians 13:11). Of course, the pinnacle of God’s generosity comes in the gift of Jesus. God first gave him to be born into the world, then gave him over to death in order to redeem a world unable to do it for itself. Finally, God gives us the Holy Spirit to remain with us forever. In celebrating the Trinity today, we realize God’s supreme generosity.

How do you respond to others’ generosity? To God’s?

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen
